Hello again from Hidden Springs Resort. Everyone here is having a great time this summer.

The most affordable family vacation hands down is camping. Tent and RV sites are still dirt-cheap and exploring the wild Coming soon, a new member benefit. Full details in next month's issue!

Hope all of you great Dads had a wonderful relaxing Father's Day! Ed and I took off on our bike and rode out to Salton Sea, which is about 45 minutes from here. It's a huge lake out in the middle of the desert and it used to be the place to spend every holiday

June was a blockbuster month at Tomorrow's Stars RV Resort. Entertainment started with Chasing Stacy, a dynamic group that plays a variety of music. Young and old tapped their feet

Norm Zintz picked up a guitar during the band's break and played and sang us a song. Band members joined him in a couple of songs. Norm's band, Road Toads, is scheduled to entertain us August 7.

We also hosted a Blue Grass Extravaganza with performances by Miami Valley's Most Wanted, Shadz of Blue, and Homebound. Five hours of entertainment and although the heat was oppressive, the crowd continued to enjoy their great music.

The groups have quite a following and so we made new friends who normally do not come to our park. They will return July 17. Don't miss it.

New benches at the pond

We have lots of great fun scheduled for July. The July 4th holiday weekend is one of the children's favorites, with Kid's Olympics where they can win gold, silver and bronze medals in each event. We will have a bicycle and golf cart decorating contest followed by a parade through the park. We didn't forget the adults; there will be an adult corn hole tournament. Then there is the evening entertainment. Saturday is the Sonship Quartet gospel group with their wide following and inspirational music. Sunday will be a Karaoke and/or 50s/60s music and dance—you decide. We aim to please!

July 10 is the Chris Baldwin gospel group, pool water games and adult golf cart rodeo. July 17 is another full weekend - we are hosting a Model A Car Show, Civil War Re-Enactment, Hillbilly Havoc (watermelon eating/seed spitting/hog calling contest) and the Blue Grass Extravaganza. July 24 is Christmas in July with all the festivities the name implies. August 7, Norm, one of our members, and the group he plays with, Road Toads, will appear so come and enjoy some 60s music that weekend.

Make your reservations or just stop in and visit. You won't be disappointed.

offer cozy rustic cabin rentals alongside the Bogue Chitto River.

If you and your family are looking for that perfect campground and are ready to escape the cities and get a breath of fresh country air, look no more - Hidden Springs is the place to be! You and your family will get a chance to partake in some much-needed family fun. Our campground offers a wide variety of things to do, from swimming in our crystal clear pools, floating or fishing in the river, to relaxing at your campsite or watching the wildlife roam the park.

Our July 4th weekend kicks off Friday evening, July 2 with activities for the whole family. Saturday, Sunday and Monday mornings, Granny will be serving breakfast in the kitchen. Pancakes, homemade biscuits, tomato gravy, sausage gravy, eggs, bacon, sausage and cheese sandwiches real cheap. Saturday activities include kids movie time, cake walks, family bingo, DJ and our famous fireworks show on the river. Sunday will continue with more activities. What are you waiting for? Summer is here, come join in the fun!

Hope to see you soon.

Fishing and swimming, two of the most popular activities here stopped at a small casino called Red Earth, left our deposit and then headed up to Borrego Springs, a small quaint town in the mountains with a population of around 350. It's a one gas station town and the ride up is pretty barren but the mountain views are spectacular; they look somewhat like the Grand Canyon.

We stopped for lunch in Borrego Springs and then took the back roads to Warren Springs where we finally found a little cool air. After stopping for a drink we headed up to Idyllwild, a small mountain town with lots of little stores and a great place to stop for a rest and listen to a little country band. We stayed there just long enough for it to cool down in the valley and headed home to Cathedral Palms RV Resort. All in all it was a great way to spend a Sunday and since we haven't had much chance to go for a day long ride it was a real treat. We were a little tired and sore but it was all worth it.

Last week we took a drive to Yucca Valley and went through the National Park; what a nice ride. We drove from one end to the other, about 45 miles of wilderness with lots of scenic stops along the way telling you all about the wild flowers and animals that call the desert home.

The park is pretty empty right now, which is the perfect time to prune all of the oleanders and large trees, check all of the water lines and repair tables; there seems to always be something to do just when you think you are done another project pops up.

Even though it is pretty warm here there are still lots of things to entertain everyone. Knott's Soak City Water Park is the perfect place for a family to cool down with a slide for everyone from the small kids to the big and daring. If you are in the area for a week or so and want to go to the park more than once the season pass at $54.95 is the way to go; it offers unlimited visits for the next three months - what a deal! And then of course there are all of the great places to eat and golf courses, many of which offer summer specials with up to 50% off.

Hope everyone has a real good safe 4th of July.

Hope to see you soon.
